The plaintiffs therefore claimed $1,000 damages for breach of contract. The defendants admitted the contract, but said the collapse of the houses in May last was due to defective construction, and that they had never-stopped the plaintiffs from proceeding with the work but on the contrary had urged them to do so. It would be shown as a matter of fact that the defendant had disposed of the property to another person with whom the plaintiffe had no contract or agreement. apers translated by the Mercury : - Advices bave been received from Hankow that the Tea Market is expected to open on the 16th. 17th, and 19th of this moon, and that the quality of the leaf is better than that of last rear, besides being slightly cheaper. But the Hupeh and Hunan provinces toas are dearer than those of previous years .-Intelligence received from Kinking states that the crop of teas this season is rather under that of the previous year, and it is much coarser and not so clean. On account of this all the common teas had to be repicked. At the time of picking the leaves there was much rain, and the pickers could not sift out all the unfit leaves and sticks. The market fluctuates very frequently, but on an average it is something like Tls. 33 to 34 p.p. for Black tea, for Green tea about 80 cash per catty, for Ningchow about 90 cash per calty, and Geemen 80 cash per

Athens, April 27. - In a report on Egyptian finance, presented to Parliament in a despatch from Sir Evelyn Baring to Lord Salisbury dated 26th February, it says that the continuance of the British occupation is of paramount influence, and is absolutely necessary to the conditions of progress and reform in Fgypt.

THE VALUE OF ENGLAND'S ARMY. London, April 27 .- At the annual Civil Services dinner, Lord Wolseley, who presided, made a speech in which he dwelt upon the necessity of having an efficient army, and ridiculed the idea that if the Navy was defeated England would be compelled to surrender. There were, he said. always ample provisions for eight mouths in store, and morcover it would be impossible to blockade all our ports against supolies coming in.
